GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS 2016

Vaccinations – All horses must be vaccinated against tetanus. Vaccination against Influenza is strongly recommended.

Worming – Faecal egg count of 0 in the week prior to arrival or all stock will be wormed on arrival. All horses will have worm egg counts and/or be wormed in line with Westlands worm control policy. The owner will be charged for wormers and worm egg counts.

Emergency Care – In the event that emergency veterinary attention is necessary, all efforts will be made to contact the owner prior to treatment. However, if the owner is not available for whatever reason, Stephen Brooks Equine Veterinary Practice will administer any treatment they consider to be the most appropriate and in the best interest of the horse and charge the owner accordingly.

Entry forms – Please ensure that the owner and horse details forms is filled in and ensure that you supply us with any relevant allergies or special requirements. The Health declaration form has to be signed by your current vet and sent to Westlands prior to your horse arriving.

Passports: It is a legal requirement that horses are accompanied with their passport. Passports will be checked for vaccinations and that the declaration has been signed in the Passport Not for human consumption. Please ensure your passport has this section in it before bringing your horse to Westlands

Farrier: All Horses will have their feet trimmed or shod when necessary and any costs charged to the owner. Any specific shoeing requirements must be notified to Westlands Stud when the horse arrives.

Schooling and competitions: Any additional cost for entries, transport or schooling fees will be added to invoices.

Invoicing/Payment:

The account term is 4 weeks in advance for all livery fees, additional veterinary work and any other costs incurred must be paid on invoice. Westlands stud reserves the right to charge a deposit before the horse arrives if they feel necessary. Payment may be made in cash or by debit or credit card or by a cleared cheque. In the case of credit cards a 2% charge will be added to the account. The horse will not be allowed to leave before payment is made in full. Interest will be charged on outstanding amounts from the due date until the actual date of payment (as well as before judgement) at a rate of 4% per annum over base rate of Nat West Bank plc from time to time in force which shall accrue on a daily basis. Any invoice outstanding for longer than 30 days will be referred to a debt collecting company and will be subject to a surcharge to cover the costs incurred. This surcharge together with all other charges and legal fees incurred will be the responsibility of the customer and will be legally enforceable.

Additional Feed Requirements: Westlands Stud reserves the right to raise livery charges to accommodate additional feed due to an individual horses requirements or adverse weather conditions.

Insurance: Westlands Stud accepts no responsibility for death or injury to a horse boarding at Westlands and does not carry insurance cover; it is the owner's responsibility to provide their own insurance cover.

-Horses whilst at Westlands Stud will receive every possible care, attention and supervision, but Westlands Stud accepts no responsibility whatsoever for accident, theft or disease, nor does Westlands Stud give any express or implied guarantee of success.

- All horses are left at their owner's risk and Westlands stud are not to be liable for any damages or compensation in respect of any injury or damage howsoever caused to any horse.

-Westlands Stud reserves the right to refuse entry to the stud to any horse in the event that any of these conditions are not complied with or where they consider that mare or foal to be an unacceptable health and safety risk or for any such reason.

-If a horse is in on schooling or full ridden livery by signing this form you give us permission to transport your horse to schooling events and competitions.

I have read and agreed to the terms and conditions outlined above.
